A better way to access your information and help the environment

As a valued shareholder in SDI Limited, you will be despatched an annual report outlining the performance of your Company. You can help minimise the costs of this process by electing to receive SDI Limited communications by email.

Electronic communication provides cost savings in terms of reducing printing and postage, as well as improving speed and quality of communication, helping to reduce paper-based mailings. You benefit from this service with faster delivery time, the convenience of having electronic copies of statutory mailings via your desktop and the opportunity to download and print any particular area of interest.

How do I sign up?

There are several ways SDI Limited shareholders can become electronic shareholders:

Hard copy – by completing the form below and returning it to us in the reply paid envelope.
